This book is printed for the Descendants of William and Mary Ann Appleton
As a Memorial of their Marriage
One Hundred Years Ago

William Appleton was born in North Brookfield, Massachusetts, November 16, 1786. He was the son of the Reverend Joseph and Mary (Hook) Appleton. When a young man he went to Boston. He became a prominent merchant, was a member of Congress, built the first Protestant Episcopal Mission Church in China, and was one of the founders of St. Paul's Church, Boston.

He died February 15, 1862. His wife Mary Ann was born in Boston, March 6, 1794. She was the daughter of James and Mehitable (Sullivan) Cutler, and grand-daughter of Governor Sullivan. She died March 29, 1860, at 54 Beacon Street. In this house they passed most of their married life, and it is still owned by one of their grand-daughters.

Can you see to it that this family record is preserved for one hundred years, and that at the end of a century another family record is made in continuation of this one, to which is added a similar request?
